

Collapsing the Four Pillars: The 'Little Bang' of 1987 and its Impacts on the Canadian Financial System

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 2025 | 3:00PM

Albany Club of Toronto | 91 King St E, Toronto

Price: $100 per person

Purchase Tickets Here

Section 99:13: The BNA Act and the Evolution of the Four Pillars

Joe Martin

President, Canadian Business History Association

Panel Discussion: The Little Bang of 1987: For Better or For Worse

PANELISTS

Rick Waugh

Former CEO, Scotiabank

Chuck Winograd

Former CEO, RBC DS

MODERATOR

Frances Horodelski, CFA

Analyst and financial journalist

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Professor Charles Calomiris

"If stable and efficient banks are such a good idea, why are they so rare?"

Professor Calomiris is a financial policy expert, author, co-director of the Institute for Research in Economics in Washington, D.C., and co-author of Fragile By Design: The Political Origins of Banking Panics and Scarce Credit

COCKTAIL PARTY

Announcement of

The First Waugh Family Foundation Book Prize in Canadian Business History

Dr. Andrew Ross

Chair, Canadian Business History Association

Rick Waugh

Presentation of Prize

SPONSORED BY:

TONY FELL

TRUNITY PARTNERS
LASTING WEALTH